Bank of Charles Town (BCT) Welcomes Scott Slick as Vice President – Commercial Loan Officer

Charles Town, West Virginia (January 3, 2018) – Potomac Bancshares, Inc. (OTC-QB: PTBS), the one bank holding company for Bank of Charles Town (BCT), welcomes Scott Slick as Vice President – Commercial Loan Officer. He will be responsible for developing new commercial customer relationships in the Eastern Panhandle market area. Slick brings over 18 years of financial services experience to his new position.

“We are very pleased to have Scott join our Eastern Panhandle team,” said BCT President and CEO Alice Frazier. “He is a well-known and trusted banker and will be a great addition to the BCT family.”

A Martinsburg, WV, resident, Slick stated, “It is exciting to be part of the growth plans for a well-respected community bank like BCT. I am looking forward to working in the local community with my friends and neighbors.”

Slick was most recently with the Branch Banking and Trust Company (BB&T). Community involvement comes naturally to Slick as he is the past president of the Greencastle, PA, Rotary Club and a longtime volunteer at the United Way. He is a graduate of Boonsboro High School in Washington County and a 2000 graduate of Shepherd University. In his free time, Slick spends time with his wife, Beth, and their two daughters, and enjoys golfing and fishing.

Bank of Charles Town, a wholly owned subsidiary of Potomac Bancshares, Inc., is a locally owned community bank with seven convenient offices serving the Eastern Panhandle of West Virginia, Washington County, Maryland and Loudoun County, Virginia. For more information visit www.mybct.com.
