BCT – The Community’s Bank Offers Local Artist Spotlight At Purcellville Banking Office

PURCELLVILLE, VA, Oct. 23, 2018 (OTC:PTBS): BCT-The Community’s Bank, recently announced the addition of a Local Artists Spotlight center in its Purcellville, Virginia banking office. The space will be used to promote local artists and artisans within the Loudoun County, Virginia region.

BCT supports local businesses as a matter of course. With the addition of the Local Artists Spotlight center, BCT hopes to support other important areas of the community like artisans and artists. The Local Artists Spotlight center will serve as a venue to showcase local artisans and will feature new works on a regular basis.

Leah Day, Vice President and Market Leader, stated, “We are proud to provide this unique opportunity for local artists and hope that by doing so we are expanding the reach and cohesiveness of our community in and around Purcellville.”

The Local Artists Spotlight center will be available to various creative mediums that may include signage as well as pricing from the artist. BCT will not promote or sell any pieces of art. Purchases will be strictly between artists and interested parties.
